2009-2010 MTS ENROLLMENT FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Question: Who should think about attending Ministerial Training School (MTS)?

Answer: You...if you have a Fivefold Ministry call of God on your life.

You...if you're currently a leader in ministry and desire to further develop your personal leadership skills.

You...if you have a strong passion not only to work, but to be a leader in the ministry.

Question: Are there any qualifications or requirements for attending MTS?

Answer: Yes, you must be 18 years of age, a born again believer, an active member of VCMI (MD, VA, or DC) or one of our approved affiliate churches. Also, you must have completed the New Covenant Partner's class before submitting an MTS application.

Question: I'm not a member of VCMI; does this mean I can't attend MTS?

Answer: No. Non-VCMI members are considered for MTS enrollment, but with limited admission. This is approved on an individual case basis. A non-VCMI member requires a minimum of two years active membership within his/her home church, and must submit a reference letter approved and signed by your Pastor. The MTS Administrator and Director will review the reference letter and your application. You will be notified of your application status prior to Orientation Day.

Question: I did not finish Partner's class after I became a new member many years ago. Will I be required to complete Partner's class before attending MTS?

Answer: Completing the New Partner's class is a prerequisite before enrolling in MTS. While there may have been an instance where a member has been granted admission to MTS after having only partially completed Partner's class, this is extremely rare. The MTS Administrator and Director will review and approve such cases individually. Please contact an MTS advisor for further guidance.

Question: Will I have another opportunity to enroll later in the school year if I'm unable to register during the enrollment period?

Answer: No, currently there is only one open enrollment period per year. However, if transportation, job, family, or a medical issue prevents you from registering, please speak with an MTS advisor or the Director before making your decision.

Question: When and where is orientation?

Answer: In the VCMI-MD main sanctuary on August 15, 2009 at 11:00 am (Students)

Question: When is the first day of classes?

Answer: August 29, 2009; you should arrive promptly at 8:00am and be prepared to participate in prayer with your classmates.
